Pope Francis on Joy

Pope Francis is very much a Vatican 11 Pope. In everything he says and writes one of the words which takes pride of place is "Joy", and he tells us that we are promised the gift of joy in this life. It is significant that in the titles of his major documents there are several different versions of the word of "Joy". Joy is in the title of Evangelii Gaudium and is also a fundamental theme of the document. Joy is present in the title of his ecology encyclical, Laudato Si', since the word 'laudato' denotes a surge of joyful praise. Pope Francis chose to put another Latin word for joy into the title of his major document about marriage and family Amoris Laetitia. And, as if to put even more emphasis on joy, he chose two words signifying "Joy" as the title for his latest apostolic exhortation Gaudete et Exsultate. He also put the emphasis on Joy in his messages, and in very many of his homilies.

Lord make us joyful in our relationship with you and with the people around us.
